

Solhaga Holiday Cottages

Solhaga Holiday Cottages is an idyllic place on the west coast of Finland, close to Ytteresse.

Solhaga is a luxurious five-star lodging perfect for those looking for every possible comfort. Here you find the ideal place for your holiday, or an alternative to staying at a hotel.

Tidy log cabins or a semi-detached small apartment fully-equipped for year-round living, it's up to you!

The apartments are equipped with kitchen, bathroom, sauna, open fireplace, cable TV, washing machine, and other amenities. The cabins are situated scenically by the Esse River, where you can swim or fish as you please! There are even rowboats, paddleboats, and kayaks available for your use, free of charge! At the riverside beach there is also a log sauna, with the possibility of winter swimming if requested.
